HE IMPERIAL YEOMANRY in Great Britain has, as from the 1st April, 1908, been transferred to the Territorial Force. The following table shews the short titles of the late units, and those of the units of the Territorial Force by which they have been replaced. Under the Special A.O. of the 18th March, 1908, officers and men are allowed until the 30th June, 1908, to decide whether they will become active members of the new Force. The personnel of the new units cannot therefore be completely shown in the Army List until after the latter date; and the personnel of the former Imperial Yeomanry units is accordingly retained for convenience of reference.

THE HONOURABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY AND ROYAL GARRISON ARTILLERY (VOLUNTEERS) have, as from the 1st April, 1908, been transferred to the Territorial Force. The following table shews the short titles of the late units, and those of the units of the Territorial Force by which they have been replaced. Under the special A.O. of the 18th March, 1908, officers and men are allowed until the 30th June, 1908, to decide whether they will become active members of the new Force. The personnel of the new units cannot therefore be completely shewn in the Army List until after the latter date. Meanwhile the old titles and organization are for convenience of reference retained in this section.

THE ROYAL ENGINEERS (VOLUNTEERS) have, as from the 1st April, 1908, been transferred to the Territorial Force. The following table shews the short titles of the late units, and those of the units of the Territorial Force by which they have been replaced. Under the Special A.O. of the 18th March, 1908, officers and men are allowed until the 30th June, 1908, to decide whether they will become active members of the new Force. The personnel of the new units cannot therefore be completely shewn in the Army List until after the latter date. Meanwhile the old titles and organization are, for convenience of reference, retained in this section.

THE VOLUNTEER INFANTRY has, as from the 1st April, 1908, been transferred to the Territorial Force. The following table shews the short titles of the late units and those of the units of the Territorial Force by which they have been replaced. Under the Special A.O. of the 18th March, 1908, officers and men are allowed until the 30th June, 1908, to decide whether they will become active members of the new Force. The personnel of the new units cannot therefore be completely shewn in the Army List until after the latter date. Meanwhile the old titles and organization are, for convenience of reference, retained in this section.

THE ROYAL ARMY MEDICAL CORPS VOLUNTEERS have by the Order in Council of the 9th April, 1908, been transferred to the Territorial Force, as from the 1st April, 1908. The following table shews the short titles of the late units, and those of the units of the Territorial Force by which they have been replaced. Under the special A.O. of the 18th March, 1908, officers and men are allowed until the 30th June, 1908, to decide whether they will become active members of the new Force. The personnel of the new units cannot therefore be completely shewn in the Army List until after the latter date. Meanwhile the old titles and organization are, for convenience of reference, retained in this section.
